(A) is a lobbyist or lobbyist principal, provided that the following shall not be subject to this subsection:

(i) things of value received as a result of or arising out of employment by, or doing business with, a lobbyist or lobbyist principal; and

(ii) things of value received from any director, stockholder, partner, agent, affiliate, member, employee or officer of a lobbyist principal if the donor is excepted in subparagraph (D) of Paragraph (2) from the definition of “anything of value” in Section 2 of Chapter 1 of this title, or if there exists between the recipient and the donor a close personal relationship of long standing in which the mutual exchange of gifts on special occasions, such as holidays or anniversaries, has become customary;

(B) is seeking to do business or doing business with the governmental entity of which the state officer's or state employee's office or employment is a part; or

(C) has an economic interest in actions or matters before or affecting the governmental entity of which the state officer's or state employee's office or employment is a part. A thing or things of value given by a lobbyist; the lobbyist principal by whom the lobbyist is employed or retained; or a stockholder, partner, agent, affiliate, member, employee or officer of the lobbyist principal or lobbyist principals by whom the lobbyist is employed or retained are aggregated for purposes of the disclosure threshold and calendar year limits, regardless of how the thing or things of value are funded if, and only if, the thing or things of value are given at the specific direction, and on behalf of, the lobbyist principal. Lobbyists principals of contract lobbyists shall not be aggregated together for purposes of this provision. If more than one lobbyist is retained or employed by a lobbyist principal, the disclosure and calendar year limits of the first lobbyist to register on behalf of the lobbyist principal for a calendar year are aggregated with each additional lobbyist, employed or retained by the same lobbyist principal.

O.S. App §257:23-1-2. - Anything of value reporting by lobbyists–Preservation of accounts, books, etc.

(c) Limits on things of value and exceptions. Lobbyists or lobbyist principals shall not give things of value which, in the aggregate, are valued at more than one hundred dollars ($100) annually to any state officer or state employee, or the immediate family member of a state officer or a state employee, provided that the following shall not be subject to this subsection:

(1) things of value given by a lobbyist or lobbyist principal as a result of or arising out of employment of, or the lobbyist or lobbyist principal doing business with a state officer or state employee or the recipient; and

(2) things of value given to the recipient by any director, stockholder, partner, agent, affiliate, member, employee or officer of a lobbyist principal if the donor is excepted in subparagraph (D) of Paragraph (2) from the definition of “anything of value” in Section 2 of Chapter 1 of this title, or if there exists between the recipient and the donor a close personal relationship of long standing in which the mutual exchange of gifts on special occasions, such as holidays or anniversaries, has become customary. A thing or things of value given by a lobbyist; the lobbyist principal by whom the lobbyist is employed or retained; or a stockholder, partner, agent, affiliate, member, employee or officer of the lobbyist principal or lobbyist principals by whom the lobbyist is employed or retained are aggregated for purposes of the disclosure threshold and calendar year limits, regardless of how the thing or things of value are funded if, and only if, the thing or things of value are given at the specific direction, and on behalf of, the lobbyist principal. Lobbyist principals of contract lobbyists shall not be aggregated together for purposes of this provision. If more than one lobbyist is retained or employed by a lobbyist principal, the disclosure and calendar year limits of each lobbyist to register on behalf of the lobbyist principal for a calendar year are aggregated with each additional lobbyist, employed or retained by the same lobbyist principal. Lobbyist principals retaining or employing more than one lobbyist may designate one lobbyist to file the reports required by this section. Such reports shall include all the information required for things of value given by all lobbyists, as well as by others who are giving on behalf of the lobbyist principal. If the single report method is used, other lobbyists representing the same lobbyist principal shall indicate on their reports the identity of the individual reporting on behalf of them for the lobbyist principal, but shall not list those items on their own report.

(e) lobbyist principals or other lobbyists. For purposes of reporting things of value as required by this section, a lobbyist giving a thing of value on behalf of more than one lobbyist principal shall not divide the cost of the thing of value by the number of participating lobbyist principals. Nor may a lobbyist divide the cost of a thing of value with other lobbyists for any single expenditure. A single event during any calendar year, disclosed pursuant to Paragraph (7) of Subsection (d) of this section, is hereby excepted from this subsection.

(f) Presence of lobbyist–exception for nominal things of value. Except for a single event during any calendar year, disclosed pursuant to Paragraph (7) of Subsection (d) of this section, a lobbyist who gives a thing of value to a state officer or state employee must be present when the thing of value is accepted by the recipient unless the thing of value is of no more than ten dollars ($10) in value.
